EDITORIAL

We, the Seniors of "1953" have been preparing for the time of Graduation for many years and the occasion is now here. The end of our good old school days. Even though we all want to get out of school, deep down in our hearts there's an ache, for we know that we are to leave the wonderful times we have had at R.H.S. We must face the future.

We leave the school with the thought that we are on our own. We must think for ourselves. R.H.S. has helped us get the opportunity to be successful. Even though we may all enter different fields of work, we hope to be successful, and we know that if we strive to do well and to get ahead, we WILL do well.

As we go out into the world, many years from now we will remember the school and the wonderful times we have enjoyed here. Always, we will remember our graduation day, when we marched out with tears in our eyes, for we were to leave the wonderful friends we made during our schooldays.

No matter what the future may hold, we may always remember our class motto: "VICTORY CROWNS SUCCESS."

 Has the temper in our class.
 Gloria Small, always smiling, always neat,
 Is one girl who is hard to beat.
 Aime Thuotte is our studious one,
 Always studying, but seems to have fun.

"PERFECT STUDENTS"

When Marilyn and I attend a class
The seats we take are the very last.
English class can be very impressing,
Mrs. Pratt, our sleeping is depressing.
In P. O. D. we strive to do better
I look on while Marilyn reads her letter.
Marilyn brags about typing fast
But every class she swears is her last.
In Bookkeeping class I really rate
But wrong answers are always my fate.
Back together we appear
In Consumer Ec. from Mr. Spear.
Next we turn toward study hall
This, we agree, is the best of all.
Georgia Moeller and Marilyn Schools '53

The first years are the best years,
The old saying goes;
But Senior year's the best year,
As any Senior knows.

For us, another year begins,
Another door swings wide;
A promise, yet a challenge, too,
To meet with joy and pride.

I know that I must write a poem
To earn an average rank,
But when I think of being poetic
My mind is just a blank.

"CHRISTMAS EVE"

The corn was in the popper,
Jumping up and down;
The tree was brightly lighted,
Santa's come to town.

The Children were all excited,
They had a reason -- 'cause;
They'd just seen their mother,
Kissing Santa Claus.

Besse Cote '56

"A DREAMER"

As the birds flutter by,
Or sing in the trees;
When the wind utters a sigh,
And leaves blow in the breeze.

As I watch the moon and stars,
Waves of the lake blowing high;
I think of wonderful things,
That money can never buy.

Norene White '54

"MY POEM"

Teacher said that I must write a pretty little verse.
It must have lots of words that rhyme, like hearse an' nurse an' purse.
So I sat down and tried to think
Of a couple of sweet refrains,
Then I decided to let teacher do it, 'cause she's got all the brains.

Dorothy Wheeler '55

"THE BEST YEARS"

An open door, a future path,
Whose end we cannot see;
A winding way where we must talk,
With all humanity.

With new-found courage, hand in hand
We'll go in search of Good;
And Right and Truth -- the golden keys,
To world-wide brotherhood!

Pat McDermott '53

"HELLO"

Tho' this little poem isn't much
It's really all I know,
I can't think of a plot -- believe me
So all I will say is "Hello."

Joyce Gilpatrick '54

"WILL THERE BE A WAY"

We are joined all together
On this land below the sky,
What we are really doing here
We often wonder why.

Now look at the sadness in Korea
It soon will be a war,
And if we are not careful
'Twill be the worst we ever saw.

We think of things that are going on
Wondering what will happen next,
For when you look right at it
We're really in a fix.

The boys there are getting killed
Many more each day,
We wonder if Mr. Eisenhower
Will soon find a way.

We hope that soon there'll be a change
We hope there'll be a way,
So all the boys in Korea
Will be home with us to stay.

Bette LaRochelle '54

"AT SCHOOL"

Do something each day to bring gladness
To all whose pleasures are few;
Do something to drive away sadness
Or cause someone's dreams to come true.

Do something today that tomorrow
Will prove really worth while;
Help someone to overcome sorrow
And greet each day with a smile.

Find time for a neighborly greeting
And time to enjoy all friends;
Remember, the years are flying
And school's final day will soon end.

For only through kindness and giving
Of friendship, service and cheer;
Can we learn the glory of living
And finding our happiness here.

Camille Cloutier '55

"AN ATTEMPT"

With pen in hand I sit to write,
A poem for English class, tonight;
Though I'm not a poet like Poe,
I'll try to write this poem just so.

We learned in English, rhythm to use
All those funny words to choose;
Anapestic, Trochaic, and Iambic,
Do you wonder how we could stand it?

I'm not a poet as you may see,
So will you sympathize with me;
As I try hard my best to do,
In form and rhyme and rhythm, too.

Now we've finished the poems of Poe,
And how to scan them all just so;
So now I'll end my rhyme tonight,
Because in Poetry I'm not bright.

"R. H. S. "

The day I entered R. H. S.
What was ahead I never had guessed
With all so new, what was I to do
But just to follow the rest.

Then the year of '51 was done
But what lay in the year to come?
So back to school to a different desk
And to the class considered the best.

Upstairs in the room, on the left of the hall
Is where we have the most fun of all,
And what class could the noisy one be?
The Junior Class, that's plain to see.

Our organization started the year with thirty-one girls making up the Glee Club, later being joined by thirteen boys, which of course was a great asset. Returning from last year is Mrs. Persis Bates, our supervisor, who does a fine job in fulfilling her task.

We have rehearsals on the average of once a week, and at one time made preparations for a Musical Show, but couldn't carry them out, due to so many other activities occurring at the same time.

During the year, we held a meeting to elect officers and they are as follows:

President - - - - -	Georgia Moeller
Librarian - - - - -	Pat McDermott
Assistant Librarian - - - - -	Jean Guiou

Even though we haven't sponsored any affairs this year, we don't feel that our time has been wasted, as we've all received a lot of enjoyment out of being a part of the club. Our sincere thanks go to Mrs. Bates for her untiring patience with us, and the Senior members extend their best wishes for the club's future success.

We also wish to thank Mr. Spear for all the time and effort he put into making the play a success.

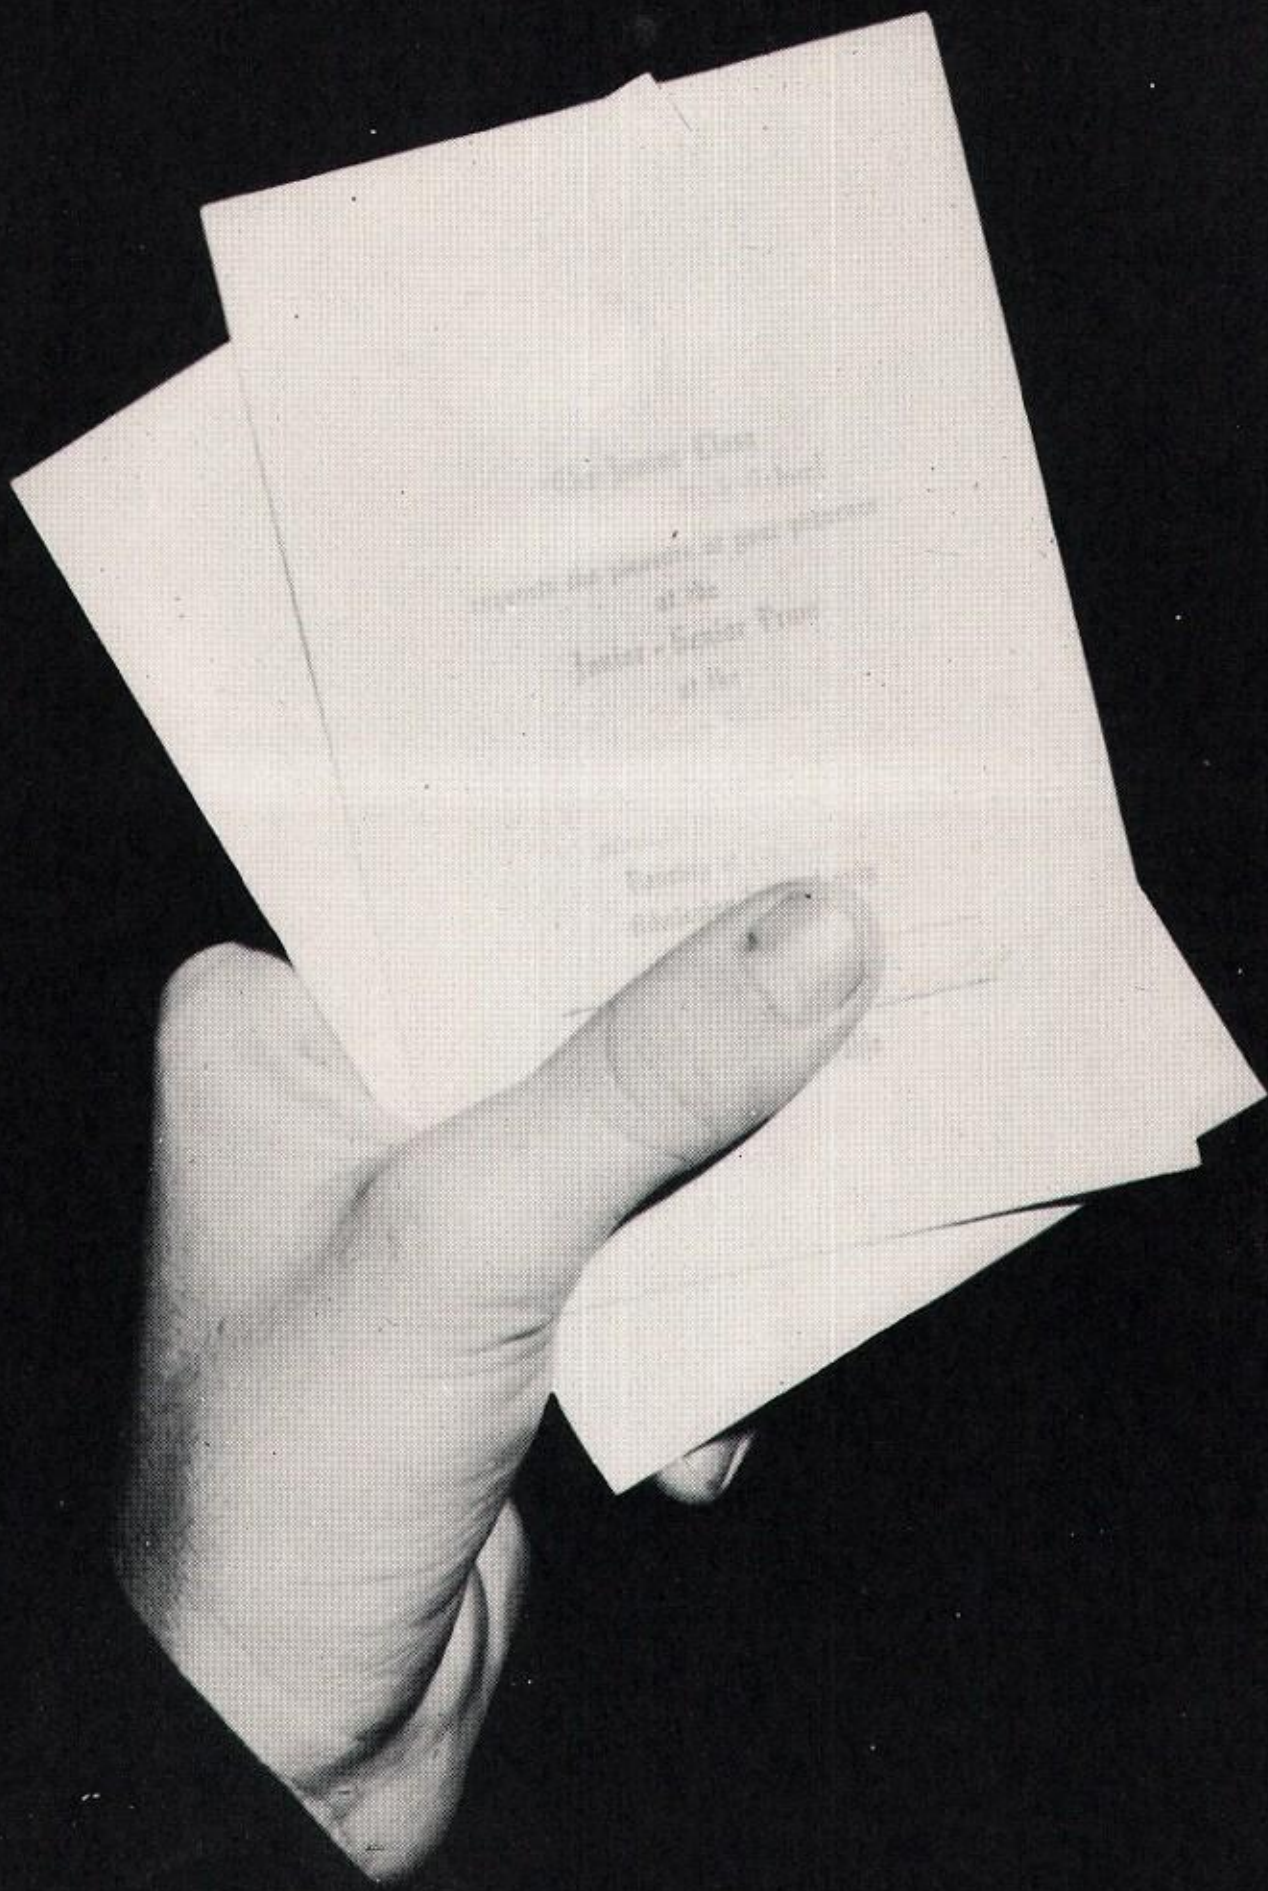

Stage manager was Neil Lemieux.

KING AND QUEEN

Queen: GLORIA SMALL

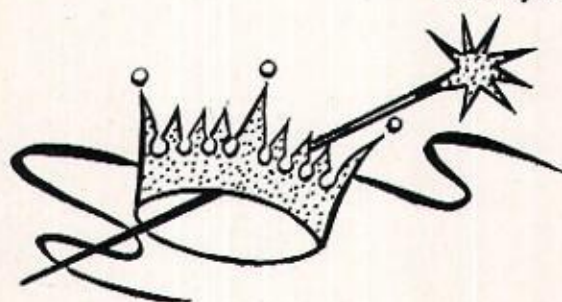

King: CLARENCE FICKETT

In November, we got busy to vote for the King and Queen of R.H.S. Each person in the school had a chance to vote for who they wanted. There were nine girl candidates and also nine boy candidates.

The crowning took place at the Christmas Ball, on December 26th with Mr. Spear, Master of Ceremonies, Gloria Small was chosen Queen and Clarence Fickett was chosen King. Both the Queen and the King received many gifts donated by various merchants of the town. Also each of the candidates received a present.

The grand march was led by Queen Gloria and King Clarence with the candidates following behind.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Coach Perry called the first practice about the first of November. Of the 16 who appeared 12 were veterans. The four new freshmen were: M. Hinkley, D. Bates, C. Anderson, and E. Leibowitz.

Coach Perry spent many hours Drilling us to get in shape for another good season. We came through our third season undefeated, 51 straight wins, to date.

Our big game of the season was against Bliss Business College at the Lewiston Armory, Dec. 5. 1952. We played a prelim game to the Harlem Globe Trotters.

We played 16 games this season and are planning a few more. Throughout the year we've lost a couple of girls, who we hope will be in the line up next year.

Manager Emelene Hinkley deserves much credit for the good work this season. Also I must mention the good work of our guards: who have stopped our opponents and struggled to get the ball giving the forwards great chances to spark.

Late in the season the girls received new uniforms which were badly needed and greatly appreciated.

Coach Perry is working on our trip to Boston. We are planning to play a game while there.

Coach Perry has spent many long hours helping us gain our victory. I would like to thank Coach Perry, for the Girls team, for being so wonderful to us. I also want to wish, from the Seniors, the Girls lots of "LUCK" in the future.

"Good Luck Girls and Coach Perry, we're sure you can do it!"

Coach Shanelaris called practice early in November. There was a large turnout with quite a few veterans back from last year.

The boys, being very well coached have done a very good job this year. Their record is 15 wins and 2 losses. (Not including tournament games.)

Richmond finally came through a successful year winning the K.V.C. Tournament. The boys really deserved it. They've played great ball this year through much teamwork.

They defeated Erskine Academy in the play-offs at Waterville on Thursday, February 19, then journeyed to Winslow High School and defeated Oakland by just a narrow margin and then again at Winslow took the final game defeated Freedom Academy 51-31. They received a beautiful trophy.

The boys have been slated to play in the Western Maine Tournament. Their first game is with Falmouth at Lewiston on February 26.

Congratulations to the team and Coach Shanelaris!

Next years team looks just as successful as this years was, losing only the Seniors.

"CHUCKIE"

Charles Davis, more popularly known as "Chuckie" to the students at R. H. S. Chuckie is a newcomer to our school this year, and he has graciously fulfilled his duties as janitor of our school. We all wish to thank him for his untiring efforts to keep the school neat appearing at all times and never once have we been ashamed to have an outsider come in for a visit. Our hats off to you, "Chuck!"

The Seniors

First row, left to right: A. Tarr, A. Dore, N. Curtis, G. McCosh, G. Withee, N. Lemieux, J. Sullivan, D. Chambers. Second row: R. Meserve, Manager, G. Williams, R. Leibowitz, F. Curtis, Coach Shanelaris, R. Reynolds, W. Beckwith, E. Coughlin, C. Fickett, R. Reynolds.

FOOTBALL

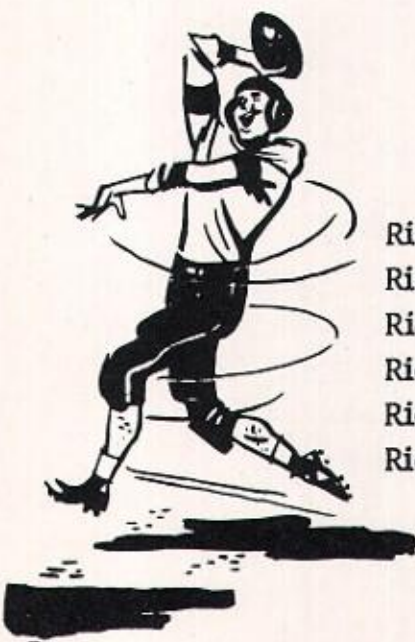

Coach Shanelaris brought his team through a good football term. Their record was 4 wins and 2 defeats.

The boys did a very good job. Their opponents were tough ones to beat.

Next years team should be able to keep the good record coming, as many of the teammates will be veterans.

RHS BAND

The band has had a very successful year under the direction and supervision of our director Roscoe Whitten. During the summer months the band played at many different occasions and received many honors.

Since school has started the band hasn't done much more than rehearse. The band had the honor of playing at the county teachers convention which was held in Richmond for the first time. We have also played a few concerts and when the weather gets better we hope to be out on the road again.

The whole band takes their hats off to Mr. Whitten for the fine work he has done.

The "R" Club got off to a late start this year with little interest shown at first, but as football season rolled around, things began to click in their usual manner. A few members donated their time and energy to collecting money at the home football games.

Early in October a wienie roast was held at Maxine Waltz's home, after which, entertainment by Lukey Little and Emelene Hinkley was enjoyed by all.

Basketball season came upon us almost before we realized it and during the excitement of practicing and playing we failed to have very many meetings. All the members of the club joined together to help feed and entertain the visiting teams.

Officers are:

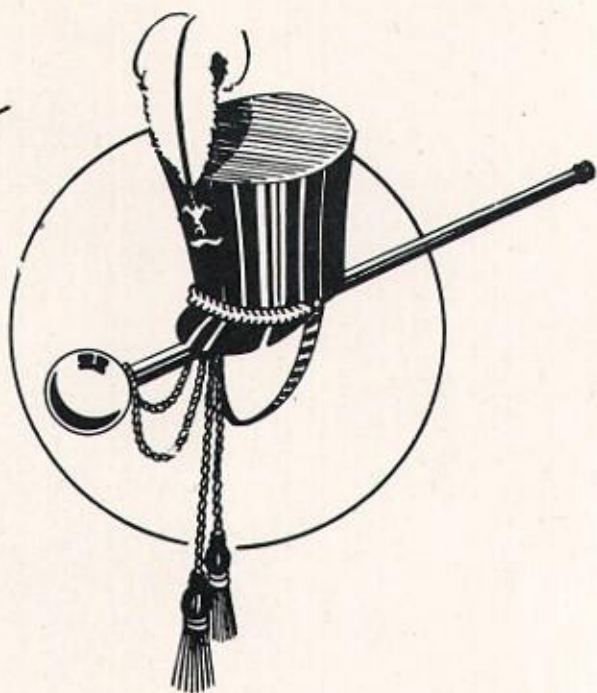

President - - - - -	Gloria Small
Vice President - - - - -	Maxine Waltz
Secretary - - - - -	Ann Hodgkins

The staff of majorettes consists of six veterans and two newcomers. The veterans being Gretchen Hodgkins, Charlotte and Phyllis Hurley, Donna Marriner, Jean Meserve, Pat McDermott, and the newcomers being Camille Cloutier and Claudia Guiou.

During the past year, we've appeared in various places along with the band and have tried to serve our purpose. Though we're still performing without lessons, each and everyone of us, twirl to the best of our ability and will continue to do so.
